

Dr. Srinivas Kaveri

Director, CNRS Bureau in India

Embassy of France, New Delhi

Dr Srinivas Kaveri, received his Veterinary Medicine degree in Bangalore India, and his Ph.D. at the Pasteur Institute, Paris. Following a post-doctoral training with Heinz Kohler in IDEC Pharmaceuticals in San Diego, USA, Dr Kaveri joined the CNRS, France in 1990. Dr Kaveri's research is focused on immunopathology and immunotherapy. Dr Srinivas Kaveri has been actively involved in Indo-French research activities. From February 2015, Dr Kaveri represents CNRS, as the Director of New Delhi Bureau at the French Embassy. Aside from over 250 publications, he has several patents to his name. He has received research grants from several national and international bodies.